

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Jo Daviess County Greenways & Trails Plan is the result of the efforts of many people. The contributions of the following individuals deserve special mention:

Bridgette Stocks, of Fehr-Graham & Associates, was the project consultant.

Lester Johnson, Soil & Water Conservation District, for creating the Waterways map, and for contributing his knowledge about the many mapping resources available for reference.

Chris Kirkpatrick, Jo Daviess Conservation Foundation, for directing the committee to information essential to the success of the plan, and for insights into the natural resources of the county.

Bret Gempler, Jo Daviess County GIS, for providing map layers and creating the community maps.

Jim Baranski, Baranski Hammer Moretta & Sheehy-Architects & Planners, for creating maps (Existing Conditions, Navigable Waterways, Route Potential) and designing the poster plan layout.

Kyle Embry, Soil & Water Conservation District, for information on best land management practices.

Deb Malone, Fever River Outfitters, for information and guidance about navigable waterways.

Dan Harms and Mark Einsweiler , G.O.A.T.S. Bicycle Club, for information about county cycling routes.

Jim Gonyier and Nicole Turpin, for their participation and information about trail planning in Iowa.

George Bellovics, Illinois Department of Natural Resources, for information about the Grand Illinois and Mississippi River Trails and general guidance on greenways and trails planning.

The members of the county committee that recommended grant application submittal for funding to develop a greenways and trails plan, including Terry Stoffregen (County Board), Julie Bruser, Ron Lawfer, Steve McIntyre, Dick Pouzar, John Schultz and Marvin Wurster.

All those who attended work sessions, completed surveys and commented on drafts of the plan.
