

Code of Conduct for
Jo Daviess County Health Department Volunteers
(Medical Reserve Corps)
For Public Health Emergencies

As a Medical Reserve Corps volunteer, I recognize the importance of honesty and fairness. Integrity and respecting the dignity and diversity of others is key to responding to Public Health emergencies. If a conflict of interest should arise I will voluntarily acknowledge that issue and discuss it with the Medical Reserve Corps coordinator in order to resolve the conflict. I will guard confidentiality and be nonjudgmental. I will use any electronic communication for the purpose it was intended. I value the health and safety of myself and others and intend to work with others following the unified command principles.
