Unfinished Business:

Article assignments – Bill will write February's article for the newspaper and Jan will write March's. Send all articles to Lori first before it goes into the newspaper.

Any presentations given that you represent the JDCHD OPC or market the JDCHD OPC, send Lori a written summary.

Health Summit – We are not participating in the Health Summit this year unless another member other than Lori is able to coordinate it.

Earth Day – We are planning on participating in the Earth Day Fest at Turner Hall on 4-20-16.

Progress on BMI collection for the 2015-2016 School Year – Bill reports that he has received BMI data from the Galena Middle School. Bill shared the data with the Coalition.

New Business:

Article Assignments: April – Lori & May – Marty

Reports:

Number of visits to the JDCHD OPC website- 406 views, 144 – unique IP addresses

Report of MMC + Me – Marty reports the Relay For Life is scheduled for June 11th.

Other:

We are changing the name of the coalition to “The Jo Daviess County Wellness Coalition: Promoting Health Living. We will still use the same style logo that we have; just changing the wording.

Bill will work on a new mission statement.

Lori will work on a new logic model/ or strategic plan.

All members will recruit additional members to the coalition.

We will still continue monthly articles and collecting BMI data from the schools.

The Coalition will sponsor a variety of “Healthy Living” themed classes/seminars throughout the year. Members that have agreed to lead some classes:

- Marty Soat – Exercise
- Char Kennedy – Food /Cooking Class
- Nancy Kopperud – Integrative Health

We will partner with community agencies providing similar services.

Bill Bingham motioned to adjourn the meeting at 5:37pm, seconded by Marty Soat. All in favor, motioned passed.
